

CURRICULUM VITAE

I. General Information

Name: Sergey V. RYAZANTSEV

Date of birth: April, 26th, 1973

Gender: Male

Nationality: Russian Federation

Current employment: Institute of Social-Politic Research of the Russian Academy of Sciences (ISPR RAS),

Chair, Centre for Social Demography and Economic Sociology

Contacts: E-mail: riazan@mail.ru; web-site: www.ryazantsev.org

119333, Moscow, Fotievoi str., house 6, corpus 1, office 201, tel. +7 (499) 530-28-84

Academic Titles:

Corresponding Member, Russian Academy of Sciences (Sociology and Demography), elected 2011

Full Professor (Economic of Population and Demography), 2005, State Dipoloma

Full Professor (World Economy), 2004, State Diploma

Doctor of Science (Dr. Habil. In Economic Sciences: Economic of Population and Demography), Institute of Socio-Political Research of the Russian Academy of Sciences, 2002

Ph.D. (Economic of Population and Demography), Institute of Socio-Political Research of the Russian Academy of Sciences, 1998

Education, Qualifications and Traineeships

September-December 2011

Language Course of “Translator in professional communication”, Government Central Foreign Language Courses (Moscow, Russian Federation)

June 2009

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Programme (Geneva, Switzerland)

July 2008

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the Asian Regional Programme on Governance of Labour Migration (Bangkok, Thailand)

April-May 2009

German Language Course in German Linguistic Institute (Tubingen, Germany)

July-August 2006

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Programme and International Organization for Migration (Geneva, Switzerland)

July-August 2005

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Programme (Geneva, Switzerland)

November 2003

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Programme (Geneva, Switzerland)

October 2002

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Branch (Geneva, Switzerland)

December 1999 – September 2002

Postdoctoral Fellow, Institute for Social-Politic Research, Moscow

Subject of the Dissertation “Migration processes in Europe and their social-economical consequence” (theory and methods research)

April 2002

SPSS Course, Centre of Social Education, Institute Sociology of RAS (Moscow, Russia),

January-May 2000

Traineeship, International Labour Organization in the International Migration Branch (Geneva, Switzerland)

October 1995 – September 1998

Doctoral course, Institute for Social-Politic Research RAS (Moscow, Russia)

Subject of the Dissertation “Migratory influence upon social and economical development of region” (on example of Stavropolskyi krai)

September 1990 – July 1995

Stavropol State University, Geographic faculty (Stavropol, Russia), MA in Geography and World Economy

September 2002 – May 2003

Stavropol State University, Economic faculty (Correspondence course)

September 1993 – July 1998

Stavropol State University, Historic faculty (Correspondence course)

Language competences:

Russian - native; English - Independent User, German and Portuguese - Basic User

Professional career:

October 2002 - up to now

Chair, Center of Social Demography and Economic Sociology, Institute of Social-Politic Research of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow

Reference person: Director, Academician Gennadiy OSIPOV, osipov@ispr.ras.ru

Brief description of work: the organization of work of the research center; the organization and carrying out of scientific research and projects; participation in scientific conferences; preparation of analytical materials; participation in session of expert groups; consultations of the international organizations and the governmental structures

September 2007 – up to now

Professor and Academic Director of an MA program in IR, Moscow State Institute of International Relations of the MFA of Russia (MGIMO-University), Moscow

Reference person: Head of Department, Professor Tatyana SHAKLEINA, shakleina-tania@yandex.ru

Brief description of work: preparation and carrying out of lectures and seminars; working out of the program of a course “International migration”; management of dissertational works of post-graduate students; performances at conferences; management of master program “World Policy and Transnational Business”.

September 2004 – up to now

Professor of the Peoples' Friendship University of Russia, Moscow

Reference person: Head of Department, Professor Nikolay GUSAKOV, gnp@mail.ru

Brief description of work: preparation and carrying out of lectures and seminars; working out of the program of a course “World labor market and international migration”; a management of dissertational works of post-graduate students; performances at conferences

March-August 2014

Visiting Professor (Fulbright Academic Exchange Programme for Scientists) on Gifford Center for Population and Migration, University of California, Davis, USA

Reference person: Professor Philip MARTIN, martin@primal.ucdavis.edu

Brief description of work: Research project “Integration of Russian Immigrants in American Society Through of the Russian Speaking Community”; work in library; participation in conferences; carrying out of seminars and consultations for post-graduate students; preparation of the joint publications

September 2010 – July 2012

Professor of Moscow State University (Lomonosov University), Moscow

Reference person: Head of Department, Professor Vladimir IONTSEV, iontsev@econ.msu.ru, iontsev@ns.econ.msu.ru; Deputy of Head of Department, Professor Irina IVAKHNUK, ivakhnyuk@econ.msu.ru, irina.ivahnuk@mtu-net.ru

Brief description of work: preparation and carrying out of lectures and seminars; working out of the program of a course “Demography”; a management of theses of students and dissertational works of post-graduate students

July - October 2013

Visiting Professor on NUCLEAS, University of State of Rio-de-Janeiro, Rio-de-Janeiro, Brazil

Reference persons: Professor Maria Teresa Brites LEMOS and Professor Alexis TORIBIO DANTAS, alexist@terra.com.br

Brief description of work: Research project “Russian Migration and Russian-speaking Diaspora in Brazil”; work in library; participation in conferences; carrying out of seminars and consultations for post-graduate students; preparation of the joint publication

June - October 2012

Visiting Professor on Slavic Research Center, SRC, Hokkaido University, Sapporo, Japan

Reference person: Professor Shinichiro TABATA, shin@slav.hokudai.ac.jp

Brief description of work: Research project “Ethnic Migratory and Formation of Diasporas in Frontier Regions in a Context of National Security of Russia”; work in library; participation in conferences; carrying out of seminars and consultations for post-graduate students; preparation of the joint publication

June 2002 – June 2012

Professor, Head of the Department World Economy in Stavropol State University, Stavropol

Reference person: Rector, Professor Vladimir SHAPOVALOV, stavsus@stavsus.ru

Brief description of work: management of department, carrying out of researches, carrying out of lectures, seminars and consultations for students and post-graduate students

March 2012

Visiting Professor on Center Multicultural and Migration Research, University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia

Reference person: Professor Christine INGLIS, christine.inglis@sydney.edu.au

Brief description of work: Research project “Russian-speakers community in Australia”; work in library; participation in conferences; carrying out of seminars and consultations for post-graduate students; statistics gathering; presentation of results of research; field researches in Russian community; meetings in the governmental structures on management of migration

January-June 2010

Visiting Professor on Russian Research Center, IER, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo, Japan

Reference person: Professor Kazuhiro KUMO, kumo@ier.hit-u.ac.jp

Brief description of work: Research project “Migratory situation and the migratory policy of Russia”; work in library; participation in conferences; carrying out of seminars and consultations for post-graduate students; preparation of the joint publication

March 1998 – May 2002

Associate Professor in Stavropol State University, Stavropol

Reference person: Rector, Professor Vladimir SHAPOVALOV, stavsus@stavsus.ru

Brief description of work: preparation and carrying out of lectures, seminars and consultations for students; carrying out of researches

September 1995 - February 1998

Assistant Professor in Stavropol State University, Stavropol

Reference person: Rector, Professor Vladimir SHAPOVALOV, stavsus@stavsus.ru

Brief description of work: preparation and carrying out of seminars and consultations for students; participation in scientific researches; dissertation preparation

II. Academic activity

Main fields of research

1. The Demographic and migration trends in Russia and CIS countries.
2. The Socio-economic and politic consequences of migration in Russia and CIS countries.
3. Demographic and migration policy of the Russian Federation.
4. The Ethnic migration, Russian emigration, and Russians Communities Abroad (Russian Diaspora).

Shortlist of major publications

1. Monographs

Ryazantsev S., Migration from Russia to Australia and Formation of a Russian Community, ANU Centre for European Studies Briefing Paper Series, Canberra, ANU Centre for European Studies, Vol. 4, № 5, July 2013, 32 p. (in English).

Ryazantsev S. and Horie N., Modeling of Flows of Labour Migration from Central Asian countries in Russia: Economical-Sociological Research, Moscow, Sciences World, 2011, 192 p. (in Russian).

Ryazantsev S. and Jan H., The Chinese Migration into Russia: Tendencies, Consequences and Approaches to Regulation, Moscow, Economical Education, 2010, 150 p. (in Russian).

Ryazantsev S., Labour Migration in the CIS and Baltic Countries: Tendencies, Consequences, Regulation, Moscow, Formula Prava, 2007, 576 p. (in Russian).

Ryazantsev S., Influence of Migration on Social and Economic Development of the Europe: Modern Tendencies, Stavropol, Book Publishing House, 2001, 542 p. (in Russian).

2. Articles in Scopus and Web of Science Journals

Riazantsev S., Russia Needs a New Migration Policy, Russian Politics and Law, Volume 51, Number 3, May-June 2013, pp. 80-88 (in English).

Riazantsev S., Pis'mennaia E., Emigration of scientists from Russia: "Circulation of minds" or "Brain drain", Sociological Studies, № 4, 2013, pp. 24-34 (in Russian).

Riazantsev S., Pis'mennaia E., The Effects of Foreign Academic Migration for Russia, Russian Education and Society, vol. 52, no. 5, May 2010, pp. 55-41 (in English).

Ryazantsev S., Turkish Communities in the Russian Federation, Transnational's", International Journal on Multicultural Societies (IJMS), Special Issues "Turks Abroad: Settlers, Citizens, Vol. 11, № 2, 2009, p. 155-173 (in English).

Riazantsev S., Pis'mennaia E., Unemployment and new forms of employment in the North Caucasus, Sociological Studies, № 7, 2005, pp. 31-42 (in Russian).

Ryazantsev S., The Demographic Situation in the North Caucasus, Sociological Research, March-April 2003, Vol. 42, № 2, p. 30-45 (in English).

Riazantsev S., The demographic situation in the North Caucasus, Sociological Studies, № 1, 2002, pp. 31-39 (in Russian).

Riazantsev S., Ethnic migrants in Stavropol, Sociological Studies, № 7, 2000, pp. 11-16 (in Russian).

3. Articles in other Journals

Riazantsev S., Horie N., Central Asian Migrant Workers in Moscow: Realities Reveled by their own Words; Sociology, Economics and Politics of Central Asian Migrants in Russia, Discussion Paper Series "Sociology, Economics and Politics of Central Asian Migrants in Russia", № 39, Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo, March 2011, p. 1-24.

Riazantsev S., Horie N., Kumo K. Migrant Workers from Central Asia into the Russian Federation; Discussion Paper Series "Sociology, Economics and Politics of Central Asian Migrants in Russia", № 39, Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo, March 2011, p. 59-85.

Ryazantsev S., The modern migration policy of Russia: problems and necessary directions of perfection, Latinidade: Revista do Nucleo de Estudos das Americas, Volume 3, Numero 2, Julho-Dezembro 2011, Rio-de-Janeiro, Universidade de Estado do Rio de Janeiro, p. 219-228 (in English).

Ryazantsev S., Horie N., Kumo K., Migrant Workers from Central Asia into the Russian Federation, Sociology, Economics and Politics of Central Asian Migrants in Russia, Discussion

Paper Series, № 39, Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo, March 2011, p. 59-85 (in English).

Ryazantsev S., Position of Migrants from the Central Asia in Moscow: to Hear a Voice of Migrants, Modern Migratory Problems in the Central Asia and Russia, Kyoto, Publishing house “Minerva”, 2010, p. 250-265 (in Japanese).

4. Materials of the Conferences

Ryazantsev S., Russian Diaspora in the Conditions of Globalization: Formation, Integration in Host Countries, Interaction with Russia, Global Migration and the Multiculturalism: Religion, Society, Policy and Politics, Joint Conference, 28-29 June 2011, CRONEM, University of Surrey, UK, p. 41-49 (in English).

Ryazantsev S., The Impact of Diasporas on the Development of CIS Countries, How Migration Can Benefit Development, Edited by Kristof Tamas and Joakim Palme, Stockholm, Institute for Futures Studies, 2006, p. 133-148 (Article, in English).

Ryazantsev S., Labour Migration in CIS-countries: Tendencies, Formation of Diasporas and Impact Development, Diasporas: Critical and Inter-Disciplinary Perspectives, Edited Jane Fernandes, Oxford, Inter-Disciplinary Press, 2009, p. 327-336 (in English).

Research grants and contracts

UNITED NATIONAL ESCAP, Social Development Division, Bangkok (Thailand), Project “Facilitating migration management in North and Central Asia”, Research Report “Impact of international migration on the economy of the Russian Federation”, April - August 2014

Reference persons: Population Affairs Officer Vanessa STEINMAYER, tel.: +66-2-288-2131, e-mail: steinmayerv@un.org and Attaché, Assistant Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation Ilya ANDREEV, tel.: +66-2-234-98-24, e-mail: andreevsmail@yandex.ru

In the research a study on the role and contribution of migrant workers to the economy of the Russian Federation, which contribute to increasing the knowledge base on the contribution of migrant workers to countries of destination and origin. The study should include: assessment or estimation of the percentage of migrant workers (out of total workers) employed in different sectors of the economy of the Russian Federation; assessment of wages per sector and skill level of migrant workers compared wages of Russian nationals in the same sector; assessment of the skill level of unemployed Russian nationals; estimation of the contribution of migrant workers to consumption in the Russian Federation; estimation of the contribution of migrant workers to the GDP of the Russian Federation; overview and assessment of the contribution to private sector activity in the Russian Federation; overall conclusions (quantitative and qualitative) on the contribution of migrant workers to the economy and society of the Russian Federation. Report present at an expert group with researchers and policymakers.

OPEN SOCIETY FOUNDATION, New York (USA), Central Eurasia Project, Research Project “Improving the everyday lives of Central Asian migrants in Moscow and Kazan in the context of Russia’s Migration 2025 Concept: from legislation to practice”, January 2013 – December 2015

Reference person: Project Manager Dr. John Round, tel.: +7-916-630-66-48, e-mail: jround@hse.ru

The project’s overall goal is to examine the everyday experiences of Central Asian labor migrants in Moscow and Kazan in the context of changing migration legislation and cultural attitudes. Its main impacts will be the more effective implementation of Russia’s new migration concepts into legislation and practice, the increasing of NGO capacity for assisting migrants and support for migrants themselves; leading to the significant improvement of the lives of labor migrants in Russia. The main objective is the completion of an in-depth critique of Russia’s Migration 2025 concept, and how it is turned into legislation and practice, by examining the reasons behind its creation, its implementation and the tensions it causes within government, society and for migrants. This will be achieved by researching the everyday problems labor migrants, and their families, from Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan experience in Moscow and Kazan, and developing the analysis into effective advocacy for state and NGO organizations. The project’s methodologies include interviews with state employees and practitioners and long-term ethnographies and participant observations with migrants, and their families, in Moscow and Kazan and in their home regions. The outputs include policy reports and presentations for all relevant parties, advocacy websites, handbooks for migrants and NGOs, the creation of courses for university students, international and national conferences/workshops and numerous academic outputs.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Expedition Project “Statistical and mathematical evaluation of the contribution of temporary labor migration processes in the natural movement (births, deaths, health) of the population of the Russian regions” (№ 14-06-10028 κ), January 2012 - December 2014

Reference person: Deputy of Head of the Branch of Science about Human and Society Ms. Tatyana SOKOLOVA, tel.: +7 (495) 952 53 46, e-mail: sokolova@rfbr.ru

The project reveals the influence of temporary labor immigration processes vital (fertility, mortality, health status) , taking into account regional differences in Russia. Defined contribution and trends in fertility and mortality of migrant workers in Russia and some regions on the basis of available statistics of the current accounting processes vital. Typology of Russian regions on deposit “migration components” in the vital processes. A strategy for the actions of federal and regional authorities, and practical recommendations for the development of access to health care and mortality of migrant workers and the local population in Russia and certain regions.

EURASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK, Alma-Ata (Kazakhstan), Research Project “The dynamics of structural factors and to assess their impact on the labor market of the EurAsEC countries in the context of integration” (№ PDV-13-469), October 2013 - April 2014

Reference persons: Specialist of Technical Assistance Ms. Gulnara KUANYSHEVA, tel.: +7 (727) 244-4044 ext. 6969, e-mail: Kuanysheva_gg@eabr.org

Investigation of impact of trade and mobile factors (labour, capital) on the structure of labour markets of integrating states of the Eurasian Economic Community, taking into consideration the prospects of common labour market enlargement, and working out the recommendations on transformation of labour law and labour market regulation, taking into account the structural factors, for the governments of integrating states

COUNCIL OF THE BALTIC SEA STATES, Stockholm (Sweden), Project “The Task force against Trafficking in Human Beings under the auspices of the ADSTRINGO Poland and Russia project (Addressing trafficking for labour exploitation through improved partnerships, enhanced diagnostics and intensified organizational approaches)”, Research Report “Trafficking in human beings for labour exploitation and irregular labour migration in the Russian Federation forms, trends and countermeasures”, January 2013 – June 2014

Reference persons: ADSTRINGO Project Coordinator Ms. Vineta POLATSAIDE, Vineta.Polatside@cbss.org; Coordinator of the Project in the Ministry of Foreigner Affairs of Russia Ms. Marina VIKTOROVA, marvikt@list.ru; Coordinator of the Project in the Ministry of Foreigner Affairs of Russia Mr. Vladimir SURKOV, vladimir_surkov@mail.ru

The project gives estimates of the extent of trafficking and labor exploitation in the Russian Federation, revealed the relationship between labor migration, labor exploitation and human trafficking in Russia. Prepared and published by the national report “Trafficking for labor exploitation and illegal labor migration in the Russian Federation: the forms, trends and opposite reaction”.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION, EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE, Robert Shuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS), Florence (Italy), Research Project “Creating an observatory of migration East of Europe”, Research Paper “Russian Federation (Case study): Chinese investment strategies and migration - does diaspora matter”, July 2012 - March 2013

Reference persons: CARIM-East, INTERACT and MIGMEDCIS Project Coordinator Agnieszka WEINAR, tel.: +39 055 4685 768, e-mail: Agnieszka.Weinar@EUI.eu; Coordinator Aurélie BOURSIER, tel.: +39 055 4685 – 892, e-mail: Aurelie.Boursier@EUI.eu

The study included a review of the scientific literature, the comparison of statistical data on Chinese investment in the Russian and Chinese migration to Russia, expert interviews. Scientific report describes the number and dispersal of the Chinese diaspora in Russia, the direction and extent of migration of Chinese in the Russian regions, the direction and amount of investment from China in the Russian economy. The correlation between Chinese investment and labor migration from China. Estimations of Russian laws regulating labor migration from China.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION, EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE, Robert Shuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS), Florence (Italy), Research Project “Creating an

observatory of migration East of Europe”, Research Paper “Russian Federation and migration: Regional perspective”, July 2012 - March 2013

Reference persons: CARIM-East, INTERACT and MIGMEDCIS Project Coordinator Agnieszka WEINAR, tel.: +39 055 4685 768, e-mail: Agnieszka.Weinar@EUI.eu; Coordinator Aurélie BOURSIER, tel.: +39 055 4685 – 892, e-mail: Aurelie.Boursier@EUI.eu

The study includes a review of the scientific literature, statistics, laws regulating migration in Russia. The focus of the project was the migration from Central Asia to the Russian Federation. The models of migration management were developed in Central Asia. The features of the settlement and the formation of by migrant diasporas Central Asian peoples in Russia. Analyzed international and bilateral legislation to regulate migration between Russia and the Central Asian countries.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project “Transformation of temporary migration to permanent migration: method of estimating the trends and socio-demographic consequences for Russia”, January 2012 - December 2014

Reference person: Youth Programme Director Ms. Irina ZHURBINA, zhurbina_ia@rfbr.ru

The project studied the temporary forms of migration in Russia, which gradually transformed into permanent migration. The country's population is becoming more “saturated” migrants. First, it implies the need to increase the cost of social services of temporary workers (health care, utilities, system of education for migrant children, etc.). Second, require significant costs and ideological approaches to the integration process of the population, the formation of a new civilian identity of the Russian population. Migration is a political process for the country, which will directly determine the stability and security of the state.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Expedition Project “Study the trends and implications of new forms of economic migration to the border regions of Russia” (№ 13-06-10037-к), January – December 2012

Reference person: Deputy of Head of the Branch of Science about Human and Society Ms. Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

Defined types and prevalence of various forms of economic migration in the border regions of Russia. The evaluation of the socio-demographic composition of economic migrants involved in temporary movements between border regions of Russia and neighboring countries. Determined socio- economic and demographic consequences of economic migration to the border regions of Russia , including the contribution of migrants to the economic development of certain segments of the economy, labor market, etc. Analysis of the Russian federal and regional legislation in the field of regulation of economic migration in the border regions of Russia in terms of cross-border regime, visa issues , etc.

CENTER OF PROBLEM ANALYSIS AND GOVERNANCE UNDER RUSSIAN RAILWAYS NATIONAL COMPANY, Moscow (Russia), Research Project Strategic Forecast for Labor Sources of Replenishment with the Real Demographic Situation in the next 5-10 years in the context of Business activity of the Russian Railways

Reference person: Coordinator of the Research Project Mr. Anton KAMENSKYI, a.v.kamensky@gmail.com

The project analyzes the situation with labor and demographic situation in the regions of activity of Russian railways. The forecast changes in population and labor resources in the regions of the Russian railways. The recommendations for the company to invest in the demographic and social policy.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project “The Russian-Turkish migration system: a methodology for the assessment and prediction of migration flows”, January 2012 - December 2013

Reference person: International Department Project Coordinator Ms. Olga DMYTRINA, mamaplat@rfbr.ru

The project helped to identify the features and regularities of formation and functioning of the Russian-Turkish migration system, the development of integrated assessment methods, assessment of socio-economic effects of labor migration to Russia and Turkey, the development of the forecast migration flows in the short term.

INTERNATIONAL SOCIOLOGY ASSOCIATION (ISA), Madrid (Spain), Travel grant for participation in the ISA Forum of Sociology, August 2012

Reference person: President of Committee Language and Society ISA and Associate Professor Celine-Marie PASCAL, pascale@american.edu

Management of section “Analyzing Racist Discourses”, organizational work on section preparation. Performance with presentation “The Modern migratory policy of Russia: problems and necessary ways of perfection”.

AUSTRALIAN ACADEMIA OF HUMANITIES, Canberra (Australia), Programme for Scholars and Researchers from CIS, Research Project “Russian-speakers community in Australia”, March 2012

Reference person: Director of the Migration and Multicultural Research Center and Host Professor Christine INGLIS, christine.inglis@sydney.edu.au

Empirical research of streams of Russian-speaking immigration to Australia (“kharbintzy”, the Jewish immigrants, “new” migrants after disintegration of the USSR) is conducted. Interviews are spent, the statistics is collected and processed, and materials of the Russian-speaking press of Australia are analyzed. Features of adaptation of different immigration waves of Russian-speaking migrants in an accepting society are revealed. The research presentation is made.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR MIGRATION (IOM), Moscow (Russia), Research Project “Practice of use of patents for work at householders foreign labour migrants in the Russian Federation”, December 2011 – February 2012

Reference person: Coordinator of the Research Project of Labour Migration in Central Asia Ms. Julia MELNICHOUK, jmelnichouk@iom.int

Sociological poll of 30 experts – representatives of the international and non-governmental organizations, the legal experts working with labor migrants from the Central Asia is spent. The statistics under patents for work at private persons for 2010-2011 is collected and processed. The report is prepared; the presentation of results of research at the international seminar is made.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project “Ethnic features of demographic and migratory processes in Spain and Russia: the comparative analysis with application of geoinformation systems”, January 2009 – December 2010

Reference person: Deputy of Head of the Branch of Science about Human and Society Ms. Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The information on ethnic identity of the population and migrants is collected and processed. Common features and differences in ethnicity fixing in the demographic statistics of Russia and Spain are defined. The design procedure of an index of ethnic variety is developed. A series of publications is prepared.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Grant for Research Expedition “Social and Economic efficiency of realization of the Government program of stimulation of returning of compatriots in regions of Russia”, June-August 2010

Reference person: Deputy of Head of the Branch of Science about Human and Society Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The statistics and materials on realization of the program of stimulation of returning of compatriots in 12 Russian regions is collected. The estimation of efficiency of realization of the program is given. Key problems of realization of the program are defined. Recommendations about program perfection are developed.

Russian Humanitarian Scientific Foundation, The export of labour force from Vietnam into Russia, January 2008 – December 2010

Reference person: Head of the International Branch Mr. Vladimir ZAHAROV, info@rfbr.ru

Tendencies and social-demographic structure of an immigration stream from Vietnam to Russia are revealed. Problems of adaptation of labor and educational migrants from Vietnam in the Russian society are established. Sociological poll among 300 Vietnamese's stated or working in the USSR and Russia for the purpose of revealing of their migratory plans and reference points is spent.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project "Estimation of requirement of the Russian economy a manpower in the conditions of demographic crisis and innovative modernization", January 2010 – December 2010

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfr.ru

The role of demographic factor and migration in social and economic development and modernization of the Russian economy is defined. Statistical calculations are made, expert interviews of experts are spent. Forecasts of requirement for labor and labor migrants taking into account labor productivity growth are given.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project "Emigration potential of the Russian students: an estimation technique, factors and consequences of realization for the country", January 2010 -December 2012

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfr.ru

Tendencies of emigration of the Russian students abroad in 1990-2000th years are revealed. Sociological poll in 7 regions of Russia for the purpose of revealing of emigratory installations of the Russian students is spent. Interview to experts in the field of educational migration are spent. The statistical information, press materials, the advertizing information is collected and analyzed.

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION, Moscow (Russia), Research Project "Migrant workers from Central Asia in the housing and utilities sector of Moscow", August-December 2009

Reference person: Senior Adviser Nilim BARUAH, baruah@ilo.org; Coordinator of the project Natalia HOFMANN, hofmann@ilo.ru

Sociological poll of 100 labor migrants from Tajikistan and Kirgizstan working in housing-and-municipal sector of a city of Moscow is spent. Sociological poll of experts is spent. The statistical information on employment of labor migrants in housing and communal services sector is collected and processed. Recommendations are developed for the governmental structures and trade unions.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project "Migration women and children from Russia: social and economic and demographic consequences for the country", January 2006 – December 2008

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The statistical information is collected and tendencies of emigration of women and children from Russia in 1990-2000th years are revealed. The estimation is given scales of emigration of women and children from Russia. Sociological poll of real and potential emigrants is spent. Recommendations about emigration regulation are developed. The monograph and a series of articles is published.

Russian Foundation for Basic Research, Grant for expedition ‘The effective experience of realization of a demographic policy in regions of Russia’, June-July 2009

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

Sociological poll of experts in regions of Russia is spent. The information on demographic measures and the demographic programs accepted and realized in the Russian regions in 1990-2000th years is collected. The estimation of efficiency of the given measures and programs is given.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research Project “Demographic development of Russia on the XX-XXI centuries: sources of the information, the tendency and perfection of a demographic policy”, January 2009 - December 2011

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The estimation is given completeness and reliability of demographic statistics in Russia. Tendencies of birth rate, death rate and migration in Russia in 1990-2000th years are revealed. The estimation of efficiency of measures of a demographic policy of 1990-2000th years is given. Recommendations about perfection of a demographic policy at federal and regional levels are developed.

HUMAN CAPITAL FOUNDATION, Moscow (Russia), Research project “International labour migration in Russia and CIS countries: tendencies and regulation”, January-December 2006

Reference person: Director Alexei POMANSKY, info@hcfoundation.ru

The estimation of number of labor migrants in territory of the former USSR in 1990-2000th years is given. Tendencies of streams of labor migration in region are revealed. Approximate scales of illegal labor migration, a problem of adaptation of labor migrants on labor markets are defined. The monograph is published.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND SCIENCES OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION, Moscow (Russia), Research project ‘The conception of support of a young family in Russia’, March-November 2007

Reference person: Coordinator Tamara ROSTOVSKAYA, rostovskaya.tamara@mail.ru

The situation with young families in Russia is analysed, their reproductive plans are revealed. The estimation of efficiency of measures of the demographic policy directed on support of young families is given. Recommendations about support of young families at federal and regional levels are developed.

RUSSIANS PRESIDENTS FOUND FOR SUPPOSE YOUNG SCIENTISCES, Research project ‘Emigration from Russia: new forms, consequences and approaches to regulation, January 2006 – December 2007

Reference person: Director of Branch Vladimir KACHAK

The statistical estimation of emigration from Russia in 1990-2000th years is given. New forms of emigration from Russia are revealed and characterized. The estimation of demographic and social and economic consequences of emigration for the country is given. Recommendations about reduction of emigratory outflow from the country are developed.

WORLD BANK, Moscow (Russia), Research project “Employment and creation of new workplaces in Southern federal district” as a grant from December 2005 – February 2006

Reference person: Coordinator Ivan SHULGA, ishulga@worldbank.org

The estimation of social and labor potential of regions of Southern federal district from the point of view of creation of new workplaces is given. Sociological poll of experts is spent. Barriers on a way of development of the enterprises and creation of new workplaces in surplus of a manpower region are revealed. The monography is published.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Research project ‘Early death-rate of population in Russia: analyzing, consequences assessment and forecast’, January 2003 – December 2004

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The statistical estimation of premature death rate of the population in regions of the North Caucasus is given. Demographic consequences of premature death rate of the population are defined. Recommendations about decrease in premature death rate are developed.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION, Research project ‘Migration in the conditions of globalization of the world economy: consequences and policy problems’, June 2002 – May 2003

Reference person: Coordinator Tamara ROSTOVSKAYA, rostovskaya.tamara@mail.ru

Global tendencies of migratory processes are revealed. The place of a role of Russia in global migration is defined. Directions of a migratory policy of Russia in modern conditions are defined.

FORD FOUNDATION AND INDEPENDENT INSTITUTE SOCIAL POLICY, Research project ‘New form employment peoples in Russian province (Case study - the spontaneous trade and serves)’, June 2001 – November 2002

Reference person: Program Director Oxana SINYAVSKAYA, o.sinyavskaya@socpol.ru

The estimation of number of the occupied population in spontaneous trade and service is given. Social and economic consequences of employment in spontaneous trade and service are revealed. Recommendations about regulation of spontaneous trade and service are developed. The monography is published.

JOHN D. AND CATHERINE T. MAC ARTHUR FOUNDATION, Research project ‘The problems and perspectives integration immigrants and ethnic minority in new society (for example Northern Caucasus)’, January 2001 – December 2002

Reference person: Associate Director Mikhail TROITSKIY, mtroitsk@macfound.org

Migration tendencies in the North Caucasus are revealed. Problems of adaptation and integration of immigrants and representatives of ethnic minority in accepting society are defined. Recommendations about removal of ethnic intensity in region are developed.

RUSSIAN HUMANITARIAN SCIENTIFIC FOUNDATION, Moscow (Russia), Research project ‘Demographic losses to conflict in the Northern Caucasus’, December 2001 – January 2002

Reference person: Coordinator Larisa KYASHENKO, info@rfbr.ru

Estimation of losses of the population in region as a result of acts of terrorism, conflicts and local wars. The monograph was published.

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION, Geneva (Switzerland), Migration Programme, Research Paper “International labour migration in Russia”, January–December 2001

Reference person: Director of Programme and Senior Adviser Manolo ABELA, abela@ilo.org; Coordinator of the project Natalia HOFMANN, hofmann@ilo.ru

The statistical information on labor migration in Russia is collected and processed. The characteristic is given the key problems connected with attraction of foreign labor in the country. Efficiency of a policy of regulation of labor migration in Russia is estimated. Recommendations about perfection of a migratory policy are developed.

FORD FOUNDATION AND INDEPENDENT INSTITUTE SOCIAL POLICY, Moscow (Russia), Research project ‘Migration mobility population in the Russian province for new strategy context’, January 2000 – December 2001

Reference person: Program Director Oxana SINYAVSKAYA, o.sinyavskaya@socpol.ru

The estimation is given scales and consequences of labor population shift in Stavropol Territory. Sociological poll of labor and commercial migrants in region is spent. Features of their social and economic adaptation to new economic conditions are revealed.

RUSSIAN FOUNDATION FOR BASIC RESEARCH, Moscow (Russia), Research project ‘Demographic situation in the border region (for example Stavropol kray)’, January 2001 – December 2003

Reference person: Coordinator Tatyana SOKOLOVA, sokolova@rfbr.ru

The complex estimation of a demographic situation in Stavropol Territory is given. Regional specificity of birth rate, death rate and migration in borders conditions is revealed. Recommendations about perfection of a demographic policy in region taking into account frontier position are developed.

Awards and Prizes

March 2014, Best article in the Scientific Journal “Sociological Studies” in 2013, Article “Contribution of migrant workers in the birth rate in Russia: socio-demographic effects and costs (Will the neighbours we solve problems with fertility?)”

December 2012, Best article of the Research were supposed of the Russian Foundation for Basic Research, Article “Contribution of migrant workers in the birth rate in Russia: socio-demographic effects and costs (Will the neighbours we solve problems with fertility?)”

November 2011, Honorary Professor of Tadjik’s State University of Law, Business and Politic

October 2009, Best Young Sociologist of Russia, Institute of Sociology of Russian Academy of Sciences

October 2003, Gold Medal from the Russian Academy of Science for the best publication young scientist of the year 2002 on direction “World Economy”

April 2002, “The best teacher of the year” as a grant from Vladimir Potanin’s Foundation

May 1997, Award for Outstanding Results in Public Education

August 1999, Winners of the ILO-Moscow’s competition for young researches devoted to 80th anniversary of the ILO

October 2009 г. – Academician Gafurov Medal for Outstanding Contribution to Research on Migrations in Central Asia

Editor of Advisory Board of “Economic Education”

Head of Sciences Council in ISPR

Other administrative and professional activities

Member of International Sociological Association (ISA), Research Committee 25 (Language and Society) and Research Committee 31 (Sociology of Migration)

European Sociological Association (ESA), Committee Sociology of Migration

Russian Society of Sociologists and Demographers

Member of the European Association of Researches of the Population

Member of International Association of Researchers of the Population

Member of International Advisory Board of “Eurasia Border Review”, published Global Program “Reshaping Japans Border Studies” SRC at Hokkaido University, Japan

III. Teaching

Lecture courses

World Labor Market and International Migration (Peoples Friendship University of Russia, Moscow)

Demography (Lomonosov State University, Moscow)

International Migration (Moscow State Institute of International Relations (University) of the MFA of Russia, Moscow)

Supervision

Head of the 3 doctor's degree works and more 30 PhD degree works (2003-2012)

IV. Administrative development

Member of Experts Council at the President of the Russian Federation concerning realization of national projects and the demographic policy

Member of Scientific Council of Federal Migratory Service of Russia

Member of Public Council of Federal Migratory Service of Russia

Member of working group on working out of the Concept of a demographic policy of Russia at Ministry of health and social development of the Russian Federation

Member of working group on working out of the Program of returning of compatriots to Russia at Presidential Administration of the Russian Federation

Member of working group on working out of the Conception supports of young family in Russia at the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation